

Forget Your Shrink

By Quincy R. Major

AUTHORHOUSE, United States, 2006. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Expressing what is revealed to me through poetry has been a practice of mine for quite some time. To be exact, I have written poetry for over seven years or so. Even though in the past it has not been in a public forum, I have found Poetry to be an interest of mine. It has been so much so that I thought it necessary to share my work. This compilation of poems is an expression of how I saw namely life and society. What is also intertwined into this compilation is a number of love poems, which I feel is quite fitting. For Love conquers all. Love heals all. Love blesses all. The expressions of how I see life in this compilation are as real as I see it. Life takes on a totally new meaning when we realize how grand it can be. This comes from learning how it is really supposed to be lived. Then learning how to enjoy it. The expressions of how I see society in this compilation are written to share how I see it in...
