When author John Nicholas crashed into a house during a Halloween car chase with police at the age of 16 he had no idea it would launch him towards his dreams or grant him revolutionary keys to success. First he was thrown in jail and kicked off his high school football team. Then he endured the shame of being a dumb jock with no direction who had disappointed family, friends, coaches and community. Finally Nicholas looked in the mirror and started digging for his life. That s when he discovered a few keys that launched him forward with fresh vision, direction and inspiration. All the way to an Ivy League degree, to playing pro football, to leading ministries and to building award-winning sports media and real estate companies worth millions. What keys did he find? I discovered how to harness the power of my personal history, dreams and DNA, he says, to realize my dreams and impact the world. And I know these keys can help everyone. Nicholas calls them The 7 Keys...
