Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Memoir of Rev. Elias Nason, A M Elias Nason, son of Levi and Sarah (Newton) Nason, was born in Wrentham, Massachusetts, April 21, 1811. In looking over the genealogical papers in our old family Bible, he says, I discover that I was introduced into this bright and beautiful world at two o'clock in the afternoon of the first Sunday after Easter. The place of my birth was the southwestern chamber of an old farm house, situate about one mile east of the church and cluster of buildings, public and private, which form what is called the centre of the town. In his Gazetteer of Massachusetts, under Wrentham, he writes: The village at the Centre has an air of neatness, affluence, and unpretending beauty. His father, born in Walpole, Massachusetts, in 1779, was, at the birth of Elias, and about one year subsequently, an occupant of a farm in Wrentham, having carried on the business of a farmer from the time of his marriage in 1809. On the 7th of May, 1812, he removed to Hopkinton. In company with...
