AUTHORHOUSE, United States, 2007. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .My husband was diagnosed with diabetes at the age of three years old. At the age of thirty-two, he was diagnosed with kidney failure. The major trials had just begun; our life was being squeezed. We then took a two-year journey that I will never forget. This book takes you on the two-year journey, the journey including closing our business down temporarily for two years, selling our home and moving, two transplant surgeries, including pancreas and kidney; (I was the kidney donor), a near organ rejection after surgeries, about twenty to twenty-four eye surgeries, including a retina detachment, the death of two family members. In the physical, it seemed that there was no hope, but I soon learned that pain produces purpose, and how God engineered and orchestrated every step we needed to take. God opened doors that man said could not be opened. Against all odds, I have a miraculous testimony that I would love to share with you, a message of hope, that if we endure, hold on, and not waver in our faith, with God all things are possible to those who believe. We are in desperate need of life-changing values; our value system can get overthrown by the world's system, and everybody needs a high-quality checkup once in a while by means of the great physician.
