Excerpt from The Latter-Day Saints Millennial Star, Vol. 85: July 12, 1923 So, therefore, the Lord institutes His order of eternal marriage and He warns His people that unless they abide by that law their union cannot be continued, they cannot increase in the world to come, and their marriage does not last any longer than the time that they live in the flesh. After death comes that is the end of it. Now why should the Lord accept of all those different religions that men have made? Why should the Lord accept of offerings that men offer which He has not commanded, when they neglect to do that which He has commanded? There is no reason in my mind why he should. Therefore, says the Lord, if men do this and they do not abide by His law, it does not continue. So, here is something we should understand and teach to our children. Mothers and fathers in Israel, make it plain to your children, not in an offensive way, as some have done, but show them what the Lord ordains and why He ordains it, so that they may, if they will, enter into the new and everlasting covenant of marriage as God has ordained, do that which will continue in and after the resurrection from the dead and abide eternally; wherein they will find everlasting increase and power and dominion worlds without end.
