James got angry, stamped and cried--To snatch his top from Johnnie tried, He pushed and pulled and scratched and bit, But still he failed in getting it. But Johnny didn t want to fight, And said to James: It is not right To let your passion rise so high, And, like a hahy, fight and cry Because you ve lost and I have won--Such boys we always ought to shun. There! Take your top and marbles, too! I ll never play again with you! I do not like to play with boys Who fight because they lose their toys; They like to win, they do--oh, yes! And so they prove their selfishness. Running blindly down he fell, With a yell, In a well! Out they fished him with a net, Dripping wet, Yes, you bet! Mother spanked him o er and o er, Hear him...
