

Unbroken Link: A Brighter Love That Lives in Darkness (Paperback)

By Kangoma Kindembo

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . It s just too difficult to accept. Difficult to blind everyone s eyes. Extremely impossible to convince everyone s mind. Netenn is a songwriter who doesn t know how to sing but has never lost his hope in anything. Sarflie is a good singer but doesn t know where to start writing her songs - and has totally lost her hope in love - on the grounds of Galway their lives collided. Two cousins-in-law who caught themselves sharing a strong and inevitable feeling. Meeting each other changed their lives for good. But how does the world that surrounds them feel? True love comes when the perfect match finds the real match. Both have been in search of their true lovers for years. Changing their lives perspectives, increasing patience, taking blames even if they were innocents - losing hope from time to time - was what they thought like is what love takes. What do you wish to see in (a true) love? Sarflie and Netenn would have the answer! They have faced struggles, mockery, fear and happiness. They have loved...
